CPG Policy – Handling of Gifts

Purpose of This Policy

To establish for all CPG personnel, including CPG’s agents, franchisees and contractors, CPG’s policy on the handling of gifts.

Note that this policy should be read in conjunction with CPG’s Anti Criminality Policy

Policy on Handling of Gifts

Employees, officers and directors of CPG are expressly prohibited from accepting gifts or intangible inducements (such as hospitality, social advancement, upgrades or holidays), other than culturally appropriate items of nominal value, for the purpose of influencing the certification process.

Small, culturally appropriate, token gifts of nominal value from organisations may be accepted.

About the Policy

This policy is displayed on CPG’s website <https://www.cpg.global/about-us/cpg-overview/>
